Northern New England Ethics & Epistemology Workshop
University of Vermont
October 18-19, 2019
Organized by Tyler Doggett (tdoggett@uvm.edu), Kate Nolfi (knolfi@uvm.edu), and David Plunkett
(david.plunkett@dartmouth.edu)

Friday, October 18th
UVM Philosophy Department Seminar Room, 70 S. Williams St

> 3:00-4:15
> "Bigotry, Bosses, and Bears"
> Stephanie Leary (McGill)
>
> 4:15-4:30
> Coffee & Tea
>
> 4:30-5:45
> "Testimonial Injustice and Mutual Recognition"
> Lindsay Crawford (Connecticut College)
>
> 6:15
> Conference dinner
> 260 Crescent Rd
> Burlington, VT 05401

Saturday, October 19th
UVM Political Science Seminar Room, Old Mill 523

> 10:00–11:15
> "A Weaker Reason to Create Happy People"
> Tina Rulli (UC-Davis)
>
> 11:30–2
> Lunch
>
> 2:00–3:15
> "Does Expressivism Enjoy an Epistemological Advantage Over Realism?"
> Joshua Schechter (Brown)
>
> 3:15–3:45
> Coffee & Tea
>
> 3:45–5:00
> "Evidentialism in Action"
> Amy Flowerree (Texas Tech)
>
> 6:00
> Conference Dinner
> 3366 Silver St
> Hinesburg, VT 05461